Grantor agrees to pay all necessary and usual charges incident to the consummation of this obligation, and likewise the usual and necessary costs incident to the cancellation upon the record or records of this trust deed after the obligation has been repaid in full.)

Sixth: In case the Grantor shall abandon the property conveyed hereby or become insolvent, or apply to a bankruptcy court to be adjudicated a voluntary bankrupt, or proceedings be instituted to put him in involuntary bankruptcy, or should any proceedings be taken against the Grantor, looking to the appointment of a receiver, assignee or Trustee, then, and in either or any such case, all rents becoming due and payable to the Beneficiary herein, to be applied on the indebtedness secured hereby, and whole indebtedness hereby secured, may, at the option of the Beneficiary, be declared due and payable.

Seventh: If the property conveyed herein should be situated in two or more counties or in two judicial districts of the same county, then the Trustee shall have full power, in case he is directed to foreclose under this instrument, to select in which county or judicial district the sale of all of the above property shall be made, and his selection shall be binding upon the Grantors and the beneficiary and all persons claiming through or under them, whether by contract or by law. The Trustee shall have full power to fix the day, time, terms, and place of sale, and shall also have full power to conduct any sale hereunder through an agent duly appointed by him for that purpose, but said appointment of agent need not be recorded.

Eighth: The Grantors waive the provisions of Section 888 of the Code of Mississippi of 1972, and laws amendatory thereof, if any, as far as said Section restricts the right of the Trustee to offer at sale more than one hundred and sixty acres at a time, and the Trustee may offer the property herein conveyed as a whole, regardless of the manner in which it may be described. The Grantors also waive the provisions of Section 892 of the Mississippi Code of 1972.

Ninth: In case of the sale of the said property hereunder, the Beneficiary shall have the same right to purchase at such sale as if a stranger to this instrument.

However, this conveyance is in trust. Should the Grantor pay said indebtedness thereon at maturity, and any renewal thereof and also all further and future advances to them by the Beneficiary, as well as any other indebtedness due or which may become due the Beneficiary, by the Grantors, and comply with all the terms, agreements and conditions of this instrument, then this conveyance shall be void, otherwise, at the request of said Beneficiary, or any legal holder of said indebtedness, or any part thereof, the Trustee herein named, or any succeeding Trustee, shall sell said property, or a sufficiency thereof to satisfy the indebtedness of every kind, hereby secured then unpaid after having published notice of the time, place and terms of sale in the manner required by law, but the Trustee may sell at such time and such place as may be designed in the notice of such sale, being vested with discretion as to the time and place of sale, and not being required to make sale, or sales, at the time and place prescribed by the statute for sales under execution.

The Trustee's authority to sell shall not be exhausted upon making one sale, but he may make as many sales under this deed of trust as may be deemed advisable by the Trustee herein named, or any succeeding Trustee. Out of the proceeds arising from such sale or sales, the cost and expense of executing this trust, including a ten per cent Trustee's fee, which is hereby agreed to be a reasonable Trustee's fee and a reasonable attorney's fee, shall first be paid, next the amount of said indebtedness secured thereby then remaining unpaid, including the indebtedness herein described, and any further advance or advances and any amount expended on said property by the Beneficiary or Beneficiary's assigns, under the terms of this deed of Trust, and all interest and attorney's fees, and lastly, any balance of said proceeds remaining shall be paid to the Grantor.

The Beneficiary, or any subsequent holder of said indebtedness, or any part thereof is hereby authorized to appoint another Trustee in place and stead of and as successor to the Trustee herein named, or his successor or successors; such power of appointment may be exercised as often as the Beneficiary or holder of said indebtedness may desire, and shall continue as long as any part of the indebtedness hereby secured remains unpaid and such appointee shall have the same authority, title and powers as the Trustee herein named, and his acts shall have all the validity of the acts of the original Trustee.

If all or any part of said property herein conveyed is sold, transferred or conveyed by the Grantor, without the prior written consent of said Jim Walter Homes, Inc., its successors or assigns, said Jim Walter Homes, Inc., its successors or assigns, may at its option, declare all sums secured hereby to be immediately due and payable without notice or demand.
